

FY2017 Multi-cultural Understanding Workshop (July 8, 2017)

~Let's know the World through Rugby Football!~

1st Half

Participants had very exciting time with the guests, Mr. Toetsu Taufua who came from Tonga and Mr. Michael Stolberg from Australia, both professional rugby players of Kintetsu Liners, passing the ball, trying lineout and playing games using rugby ball.

Passing rugby ball to Mikey and received so many “Nice!” from him ♪

Higher in the air! after synchronizing the breathing with the lifters to receive the ball without being afraid of height.

2nd Half

Everyone was so concentrated to the guests' talk such as food culture and clothes people wear in Tonga or geography and time lug within Australia.

Australia is 20 times bigger than Japan in size with 5 time zones within the country!

Surprisingly, Tonga is consisted of 170 islands!
Also learned the origin of Tonga's national flag.
