

The town where the sun rises

HIGASHIOSAKA CITY

Welcome to Higashiosaka

Higashiosaka will be one of the host cities for Rugby World Cup 2019 in Japan. Some of the world's top rugby nations—including Argentina, who finished third at Rugby World Cup 2015 in England, and Fiji, gold medal winners in rugby sevens at the Rio de Janeiro Olympics—will put their national pride on the line in fierce contests here. We invite you to create once-in-a-lifetime, unforgettable memories here in Higashiosaka in 2019.

RUGBY WORLD CUP 2019™

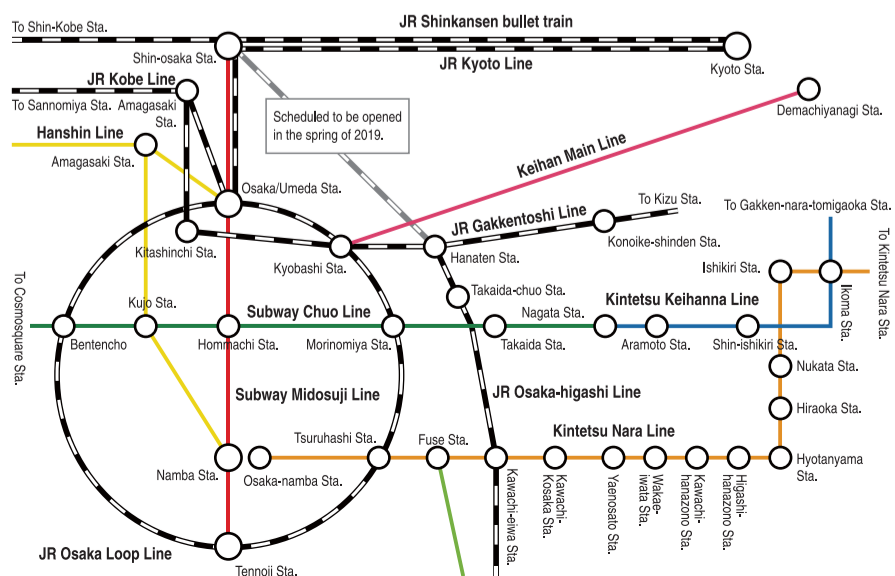

Higashiosaka Hanazono Rugby Stadium was opened in 1929 as Japan's first rugby ground. With a capacity of 24,000, the stadium hosts Japan's National High School Rugby Tournament, as well as the Japan Rugby Top League. The stadium has been called "the holy land of rugby," and is known to have a special place in the hearts of rugby players and fans across Japan. In 2019, it will also be a Rugby World Cup match venue.
